Jas. Breathitt is a candidate to represent Christian Co. in the next Legislature. Election first Monday in August.

We are authorized to announce Larkin T. Brasher, as a candidate for the Legislature, from Christian county. Election August 6, 1883.

Hon. J. C. S. Blackburn will make six speeches in the Purchase, beginning at Paducah July 23d.

The Banner says a Princeton hatched out 31 chickens at one sitting, but had to spread herself to do it.

The Catfish Telephone, in a column article, declares for Hon. J. C. S. Blackburn, as United States Senator, to succeed Hon. Jno. S. Williams.

Elsewhere in this issue we publish the act passed by the Legislature to take the sense of the people in regard to calling a constitutional convention.

Postmaster General Gresham has decided that no more registered letters or money orders can be delivered through the mails to lottery companies.

The new bank law went into effect July 1st and bank checks do not have to be stamped now. Let the next step be to take postage off newspapers.

Congressman Geddes, a Democrat, of Ohio, has appointed a colored boy named Alexander, to the West Point Cadetship. Let the colored people who think Republicans are their only friends take a note of this.

Marie Litia, the famous Illinois prima donna, died at Bloomington, last week, aged 27 years. She was in many respects regarded as the leading soprano among all the great singers of the present time.

Oscar H. Johnson, editor of the Cosmopolitan Signal and Joseph Jones, a member of the Vicksburg Board of Supervisors, fought a duel near New Orleans, July 8th, and the latter was shot in the arm. Jones challenged Johnson about some charges which appeared in his paper.

Mr. Jas. N. Banks will be editorially identified with the Henderson News in the future. He is one of the most capable journalists in the State and we cordially welcome him back to the ranks of the quill-driving profession. His last newspaper venture was the Kentucky Democrat, at Catlettsburg, now conducted by T. D. Marcum.

The Princeton Banner thinks Judge Jno. R. Grace, of Trigg county, would make as good a Senator as Joe Blackburn or any other man "who slips cream from a Bluegrass dairy." If Western Kentucky is to furnish the next Senator, Christian county's favorite son is the man.

Democrats and Republicans, alike, should vote for calling a constitutional convention to revise the constitution of the State. The progress of Kentucky demands that the dead-letter clauses be stricken out of her constitution and the only way it can be accomplished is by calling a convention.

The standard dollar contains 412½ grains and the trade dollars 420 grains, and yet the standard dollars are taken at face value, while the trade dollars won't go for more than 85 cents. If the trade dollars are not redeemed by the government the people will lose about $5,400,000. Having coined and put into circulation this bastard coin it is manifestly the duty of the government to redeem it and save the people from loss. It is a mighty poor government that would swindle its own people.—Madisonville Times.

Walter Lewis, of Chicago, and Miss Rose Kennedy, of Springfield, Ill., were married in a ballroom at Cleveland, and immediately ascended on an aerial wedding tour with Prof. King and a newspaper correspondent. The altitude was about 1½ miles and a safe descent was made several hours afterwards twelve miles from Solon, Ohio. The bride had probably vowed that she would never marry any man on the lake, like the girl who married in Mammoth Cave, or maybe she wanted to marry a bear.

The driver did not go in, and when Knott came out, his head, using a Kentucky expression, looked like a "wounded man."—Arkansas Traveler.

In an editorial about concealed deadly weapons, the Frankfort Yeoman has this to say:

"It has sometimes occurred to us that a better plan would be to abolish all laws against carrying concealed weapons, and give more attention to the enforcement of penalties for using them unlawfully. If it was generally understood that every man was armed and able to defend himself, it might have the effect of putting an end to homicide, and bring us down to decency and order."

It is rather a bold position to take, but there is no question that such a law would be to the interests of the better class of citizens who do not like to violate the law. The roughs are not deterred or restrained by the law and good citizens frequently lose their lives because they have no weapon of defense when attacked by assassins.

The trial of Ex-Treasurer, Marsh. T. Polk, of Tennessee, is now in progress at Nashville. It took two weeks to select a jury, which was completed last Saturday and the trial was begun yesterday. The following are the names of the jurors: Taylor Alford, Mike Hunt, Alex Dunlap, John M. Bell, Geo. Benzine, S. H. Stone, J. P. Cantrell, Alfred Winfrey, R. G. Winfrey, H. C. Ragan, John Scott, J. L. Gatliff.

The Postmaster General has issued an order to prohibit postmasters from reading newspapers and periodicals passing through the mails, before delivering them to subscribers. The department considers such mail matter of equal importance with letter mail and a violation of the late ruling will subject the offender to dismissal. Country postmasters and there are many of them—had better beware.

The Covington Commonwealth thinks it is "significant" because the South Kentuckian mildly criticized Mr. Knott's speech, expressing the opinion that the speaker made a mistake in devoting most of his time to national matters. We have since learned that Mr. Knott was compelled by indisposition to curtail his speech here and did not finish the discussion of State matters. His subsequent speeches in this section were faultless and gave entire satisfaction.

Gen. Wat. Harlin is on the trail of Mr. Wm. O. Bradley, the Republican orator, who is running at large throughout Western Kentucky and the Yeoman announces that the former went to Mayfield yesterday to meet him, and will also meet him at his other appointments, including this city, July 23d.

It won't do to fool with editors nowadays unless your life is insured. A few days ago two Richmond, (Va.) editors fought a duel and one of them was shot in the leg and seriously wounded. A few days later an editor shot a newspaper correspondent at Helena, Ark., for writing him up and a Vicksburg editor punctured a Councilman in a duel.

The New York World has declared for Cleveland, of New York, and McDonald, of Indiana, as a Presidential ticket for next year. The names transposed would give better satisfaction to the Western Democracy.

President Arthur is making a quiet but adroit canvass for a re-nomination next year. The ticket he is working for is as follows: For President, Chester A. Arthur, of New York; for Vice-President, Walter Q. Gresham, of Indiana.

The announcement in the Louisville papers last week that Hon. Jas. A. McKelzie would meet Hon. W. O. Bradley at Madisonville, was made without authority.

AN ACT

To take the sense of the People of this Commonwealth as to the propriety of calling a

CONVENTION

TO REVISE THE CONSTITUTION, And to regulate the manner of taking the list of Qualified Voters.

WHEREAS, It is the sentiment of this general Assembly, and many good citizens of this Commonwealth, that expedient measures should be taken to call a convention to revise the Constitution of this State; therefore,

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY, That the Secretary of State, at the next general election, shall call a convention to revise the Constitution of this State, to be held at the city of Louisville, on the 1st day of September, 1884, for the purpose of holding an election to all said qualified voters mentioned in the Constitution of this State; and

BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the Secretary of State, at the next general election, shall call a convention to revise the Constitution of this State, to be held at the city of Louisville, on the 1st day of September, 1884, for the purpose of holding an election to all said qualified voters mentioned in the Constitution of this State; and

BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the Secretary of State, at the next general election, shall call a convention to revise the Constitution of this State, to be held at the city of Louisville, on the 1st day of September, 1884, for the purpose of holding an election to all said qualified voters mentioned in the Constitution of this State; and

BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the Secretary of State, at the next general election, shall call a convention to revise the Constitution of this State, to be held at the city of Louisville, on the 1st day of September, 1884, for the purpose of holding an election to all said qualified voters mentioned in the Constitution of this State; and

BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the Secretary of State, at the next general election, shall call a convention to revise the Constitution of this State, to be held at the city of Louisville, on the 1st day of September, 1884, for the purpose of holding an election to all said qualified voters mentioned in the Constitution of this State; and

BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the Secretary of State, at the next general election, shall call a convention to revise the Constitution of this State, to be held at the city of Louisville, on the 1st day of September, 1884, for the purpose of holding an election to all said qualified voters mentioned in the Constitution of this State; and

BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the Secretary of State, at the next general election, shall call a convention to revise the Constitution of this State, to be held at the city of Louisville, on the 1st day of September, 1884, for the purpose of holding an election to all said qualified voters mentioned in the Constitution of this State; and

BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the Secretary of State, at the next general election, shall call a convention to revise the Constitution of this State, to be held at the city of Louisville, on the 1st day of September, 1884, for the purpose of holding an election to all said qualified voters mentioned in the Constitution of this State; and

BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the Secretary of State, at the next general election, shall call a convention to revise the Constitution of this State, to be held at the city of Louisville, on the 1st day of September, 1884, for the purpose of holding an election to all said qualified voters mentioned in the Constitution of this State; and
